“My goodness”, muttered Claus, recalling his visit to the Institute, “the restrictive outerwear, the padded room—even padded Christmas tree ornaments. Horrifying! Yet the little chap seems happier than he’s ever been” Claus took a thoughtful sip of a most warming red ale. “Perhaps sanity is over-rated...Ho, Ho, Ho!”

A dark flavo(u)r bomb of a beer. It backs such a punch that it is only available in 330 ml bottles.

Insanely Bad Elf is brewed by Peter Scholey, master brewer for the late and much Lamented Brakspear Brewery of Henley-on-Thames, England.
