

TIMOTHY TAYLOR'S CHAMPIONSHIP BEERS

Timothy Taylor

In 1858 Timothy Taylor began brewing beer in Keighley, West Yorkshire, England.

The brewery has remained in the Taylor family and is now the last independent brewery of its type left in West Yorkshire.

Taylor's traditionally brewed cask ales are universally acknowledged as the premium choice amongst discerning drinkers.

Several elements combine to make this happen:

The superb Knowle Spring water that wells up under the brewery from deep under the Pennines.

The finest Golden Promise barley grown especially for us to our exacting specification.

Whole flower hops from our expert growers.

Our own special strain of Taylor's yeast.

We still brew our beers without compromise the Taylor's way. By hand with one of our five Heriot Watt trained brewers overseeing every brew.

All for that taste of Taylor's
